

This dashed area represents the wrap over to the roof from the side.

This box represents the bleed area of the graphic. Use when setting up output

This box represents the bleed area of the graphic. Use when setting up output

This dashed area represents the wrap over to the roof from the side.

This box represents the bleed area of the graphic. Use when setting up output

